Colocated Event
Wednesday, September 16
1:30 pm - 5:00 pm CDT

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>TIME (CDT)</th>
<th>PANELS / BREAKS</th>
<th>PRESENTERS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1:30 pm – 3:00 pm | Welcome Room 5 | ACE President Duane Kristensen
Chief Ethanol Fuels
Rising Up: Remarks Room 5 | ACE CEO Brian Jennings
Keynote Room 5 | USDA Deputy Secretary Stephen Censky
Go Your Own Road: A Conversation with Higher Blend Pioneers Room 5 |
Welcome remarks from ACE’s Senior Vice President & Director of Market Development, Ron Lamberty |
ACE keeps up with strategies for selling more ethanol by keeping in touch with fuel retailers already getting it done. Join this conversation where representatives of leading E15 and flex fuel retailers Pump & Pantry and Casey’s General Stores tell us what has worked and what hasn’t, how the ethanol industry can help, and when we should get out of their way. |
3:00 pm – 3:30 pm | Networking Break - Dedicated Expo Time | Be sure to check out the ACE Networking Lounge |
| 3:30 pm – 5:00 pm | Fuel Marketing in the Time of Corona: A Look at Drastic and Not-So-Drastic Changes to Downstream Markets in the Next 15 Months Room 5 | Tom Kloza
Global Head of Energy Analysis, Oil Price Information Service, an IHS Market Company
Producer Perspectives: A Panel Discussion Room 5 |
Three ethanol producers discuss what it is like to lead their companies through uncertain times and share their thoughts about the future of the industry. |
THANK YOU TO OUR
ACE Conference Event Sponsors
[Images of sponsors]
Deputy Secretary Stephen Censky
ACE Ethanol Conference
Mr. Censky is the Deputy Secretary for the U.S. Department of Agriculture. He was sworn in on October 11, 2017 after being unanimously confirmed by the Senate. Mr. Censky previously served for the past 21 years as CEO of the American Soybean Association, a national, not-for-profit trade association that represents United States soybean farmers on policy and trade. Mr. Censky began his career working as a legislative assistant for Senator Jim Abdnor (R-SD). Later he served in both the Reagan and George H. W. Bush Administrations at the U.S. Department of Agriculture, eventually serving as Administrator of the Foreign Agricultural Service where he was involved in running our nation’s export programs. Mr. Censky received his B.S. in Agriculture from South Dakota State University and his Postgraduate Diploma in Agriculture Science from the University of Melbourne, Australia. He grew up on a soybean, corn, and diversified livestock farm near Jackson, Minnesota. He and his wife Carmen have two daughters.

Nathaniel Doddridge
ACE Ethanol Conference
Nathaniel Doddridge has been with Casey’s General Stores since August 2017. Nathaniel is the Vice President, Fuels where he leads the strategy and execution for all facets of fuel. Prior to Casey’s, he held several leadership positions across fuel and operations at Murphy USA. Nathaniel received his Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration from Ouachita Baptist University and holds an MBA from Southern Arkansas University. Nathaniel and his wife, Mary of 15 years, have 3 children (Lottie-12, Buddy-9, and Penn-6) and call Ankeny home.

Randy Gard
ACE Ethanol Conference
Mr. Gard has over 30 years of executive management experience. He studied Business Management at Northwood University in Midland, Michigan. Mr. Gard currently is the Chief Operations Officer of Boselman Enterprises. Responsibilities include operations, business development, M&A, petroleum, and serving as a member of the Boselman Board of Directors. Mr. Gard is also a member of the Nebraska Ethanol Board. Prior to Boselman’s, Randy was President/CEO of Chief Automotive, VP of Vermeer Manufacturing, VP of Stuart Entertainment, and was responsible for operations at Eaton Corporation at various locations.

Brian Jennings
ACE Ethanol Conference, Fuel Ethanol Workshop
Brian Jennings is the fourth generation to help raise cattle and crops on land his family homesteaded in South Dakota in 1907. Before becoming the top executive at the American Coalition for Ethanol (ACE) in 2004, Brian served as an advisor to a U.S. Senator and worked for a South Dakota farm organization—jobs which enabled him to help enact legislation to support farmers, ranchers, and renewable fuels from inside and outside the Beltway. Today, Jennings works with ACE members, who represent the heart and soul of the U.S. ethanol industry, to feature the personal stories and authentic people who are providing clean fuel and valuable food to a growing world.

Tom Kloza
ACE Ethanol Conference
Tom Kloza, Global Head of Energy Analysis, Oil Price Information Service, an IHS-Markit company Tom has been covering downstream energy markets for five decades, and is regarded as one of the foremost experts on North American fueling trends on the continent. Through his participation in the Fuels’ Institute, he is very much ahead of the curve in terms of choices that commercial companies and consumers will face for liquid fuels in the next decade. Tom is regularly quoted as an expert in the NY Times, Wall Street Journal, Associated Press and all major media outlets and has specifically covered futures markets, spot markets, and anything related to the North American fuel distribution system. Unlike many so-called experts, he does not actively trade oil and does not hold positions in public downstream energy companies. He lives in Fort Myers, Florida and summers in Monmouth County, New Jersey.

Neil Koehler
ACE Ethanol Conference
Neil Koehler has over 30 years of experience in ethanol production, sales, and marketing in the western United States. He was co-founder and general manager of Parallel Products, California’s first ethanol production company, which he sold in 1998. He also founded Kinergy Marketing, an ethanol sales and distribution firm that was acquired by Pacific Ethanol in March 2005. Mr. Koehler is a Renewable Fuels Association board member and the Director of the California Renewable Fuels Partnership. He is a sought-after speaker on the issue of renewable fuels. Mr. Koehler has a BA degree in Government from Pomona College.

Duane Kristensen
ACE Ethanol Conference
Duane Kristensen is the Vice President of Operations/General Manager for Chief Ethanol Fuels, Inc. Chief Ethanol has a 75 million gallon facility located in Hastings, Nebraska and a 48 million gallon facility in Lexington, Nebraska. Duane has been involved in ethanol production since 1986. He has extensive experience and in-depth knowledge of the many facets of the ethanol industry. Duane and his family live on a family-owned and managed diversified crop and livestock farm in south central Nebraska. Kristensen graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln with a B.S. in Agriculture Economics. He has maintained close ties with the university, including a term as president of CASNR Alumni and Chair on the Chancellor’s Alumni Advisory Council and is currently President on the NU Alumni Executive board. He is also actively involved in many other aspects of agriculture and serves on numerous advisory boards including the following: past president of the Hastings Economic Development Corporation, Ag Builders of Nebraska member, Board member on the Ethanol A team for the U.S Grains Council, and one of the founding members and initial President for the Association of Nebraska Ethanol Producers. Kristensen is currently serving as the American Coalition for Ethanol Board President.

Ron Lamberty
ACE Ethanol Conference
Ron Lamberty is Senior Vice President for the American Coalition for Ethanol. Ron spent the first 20 years of his career in the convenience store and petroleum wholesale distributing business, and has a long history as a marketer and supporter of ethanol. Lamberty provides logistical and marketing expertise to petroleum marketers who want to begin selling ethanol-enriched gasoline, as well as those who already sell ethanol and are trying to find a way to improve sales of the product. Ron was instrumental in providing a fueling station for the first E85 vehicles in South Dakota, and later opened the first retail E85 fueling site in the nation. He worked closely with ACE to establish several others during his years working in the petroleum business. He was also instrumental in one of the nation’s first tests of soy diesel, providing fuel for the Sioux Falls Transit buses in 1993. Ron joined ACE as Market Development Director in September of 2000, and was named Vice President in November of 2003 and Senior Vice President in June of 2011.
Dave Sovereign
ACE Ethanol Conference
Dave Sovereign serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors for Golden Grain Energy LLC in Mason City, Iowa. Golden Grain Energy is locally-owned by over 900 shareholders, the majority of which are farmers producing approximately 120 million gallons of ethanol annually. Dave was a steering committee member and co-founder of Golden Grain Energy which began production as a 40 million gallon/year facility in December of 2004. Dave serves as Golden Grain Energy’s representative on the Absolute Energy board of directors and the industry trade group director boards of ACE and RFA. Dave is a member of a family farm operation, he and his wife Shirley reside near Cresco, Iowa.
Thank you, American Coalition for Ethanol, for our strong partnership.